

CAYMAN ISLANDS AQUATIC SPORTS ASSOCIATION CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TECHNICAL OFFICIALS.

This Code of Conduct shall apply to all Officials in the Cayman Islands involved in the sport of swimming. Officials are expected to adhere to the general standards of personal conduct set out herein. A person should not agree to be an Official unless they are able to fully comply with this Code.

ALL OFFICIALS AGREE TO:

- 1. Participate in orientation, training and ongoing development opportunities.
- 2. Act as an ambassador for the Cayman Islands Aquatic Sports Association (CIASA) by agreeing to enforce and abide by the rules and regulations of World Aquatics and CIASA and taking ownership for actions and decisions made while officiating.
- 3. Maintain and update their knowledge of the Rules and Rules changes as they pertain to competitions.
- 4. Dress in proper attire as authorized by CIASA whilst participating in any event or activity in an official capacity. The “Dress Code” is “CIASA Official” uniform shirt (unless event management provide Officials with shirts specific to the event), khaki or white trousers, tailored shorts/skirts/capris/skorts.
- 5. Be punctual in the fulfillment of their duties at events. Officials should arrive at least 30 minutes before the event begins and report promptly to the Officials area to sign in and await briefing.
- 6. Work within the boundaries of their position’s description while supporting the work of other officials.
- 7. Maintain a fair and courteous attitude during the officiating of competitions.
- 8. Conduct themselves openly, professionally, lawfully, and in good faith in the best interests of Cayman Islands Swimming.
- 9. Be fair, equitable, considerate, independent, honest, and impartial in all dealings with others.
- 10. Remember always that the swimmer gets the benefit of any doubt.
- 11. Respect people’s differences, valuing diversity of opinion, and working with others to achieve the best decisions for athletes in competitions.
- 12. Not be involved in any conduct or activity that may harm the name or reputation of Cayman Islands Swimming.
- 13. Assist CIASA in the development of the skills of its technical officials.
- 14. All Officials are requested to sign a copy of this form.

I have read and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct described above.
